

PHILA. MEN SAVE BATHER AT SHORE

Two, Waiting for Race, Pull Swimmer into Boat and Take Him to Beach

PENN MAN RESCUES ONE

Philadelphians played the feature parts in a thrilling rescue drama within sight of thousands of persons on the Atlantic City Boardwalk yesterday.

Morris Alinson, of this city, was saved from drowning by Thomas Cowell, 6023 Washington avenue, a former oarsman and star athlete at the West Philadelphia High School, and Arthur Loeb.

Cowell and Loeb were resting in a boat just outside the breakers at the foot of South Carolina avenue. The two were paired up for a race to the buoy and back, a distance of half a mile.

While waiting for their competitors, they saw Alinson who called for help. The beach guards were too far away to reach him in time. Cowell and Loeb pulled with all speed to him.

Alinson was pulled into the boat and taken ashore to the hospital tent. He was revived and sent to his hotel. Cowell and Loeb then went into the race and won it.

"Ferd" Eble, former University of Pennsylvania football player, rescued C. A. Rooper, of Atlantic City, from drowning earlier in the day.

Lewis was one of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lewis. Within the last two years three of the children have died. The other child died previously.

The cause used by Lewis and Murphy was purchased this season. Lewis, instead of going home, as expected by his mother, went for a paddling and a swim. Mrs. Lewis first heard of her son's death at 11 o'clock last night.

Miss Chandler to Be Bride

Theodore E. Wiederseim, Jr., and Miss Eleanor T. Chandler, daughter of Fred T. Chandler, will be married Wednesday at the home of the bride's brother, Fred T. Chandler, Jr., of Ardmore. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. J. Henry Harms, of the Church of the Holy Communion, Twenty-first and Chestnut streets.

ARTHUR LOEB
He is an Atlantic City High School athlete. With Thomas Cowell, of the West Philadelphia High School, he rescued Morris Alinson, of this city, from drowning at Atlantic City yesterday afternoon. After saving Alinson Loeb and Cowell won a mile rowboat race.

400 OVERALLS BURNED

$1200 Damage Done at Breyer Ice Cream Co. Plant

Four hundred pairs of overalls were destroyed when a fire of unknown origin did $1200 damage in the basement laundry of the Breyer's Ice Cream Co.'s plant at Ninth and Cumberland streets, shortly after midnight last night.

The flames were discovered by John Hoffman, a watchman. Firemen extinguished the fire before it could spread.

LEGION POST AIDS FRENCH MEMORIAL

Bethlehem Adds $263 to Sum Required to Send Marne Statue Abroad

WILL VOTE ON NEW CHARTER

The Harry F. W. Johnson Post 370, of the American Legion of Bethlehem, Pa., has raised $263 as a contribution toward the Marne Memorial, which will be "America's gift to France," and for which more than $250,000 has been subscribed throughout the United States.

Mayor Archibald Johnston, of Bethlehem, in announcing the gift declared today:

"This subscription was obtained mainly through the efforts of the boys who served at the front, working under the direction of Post Commander Caleb S. Kenney. This represents approximately 6000 contributors, the majority of whom were school children."

The movement for this state's quota of the memorial was directed in Pennsylvania by Charles L. McKeehan, and has as its honorary chairman William C. Sproul. While no report has been submitted of contributions received the amount at present totals approximately $20,000.

The George A. Turner Post 146 will hold its last regular meeting for the summer Tuesday evening, July 20, at 8 o'clock at Salvation Army Hall, 705 North Broad street, it was announced today by the post adjutant, Arthur Lamartine. This meeting is called to ratify the new state constitution. Isidore Bayless, commander of Prince-Forbes Post No. 7, declared today that this post would meet semi-monthly during July and August. Its membership now approximately numbers 420, making it one of the strongest posts in Philadelphia.

The William F. Rocha Post 21 held its annual meeting in its club room, Sixty-third street and Woodland avenue. By unanimous vote the ratification of the new department constitution was turned over to the post executive committee.

Books for Blind Bought
The "Books for the Blind" campaign was launched at Hagerstown, Md., yesterday at a luncheon given by the Chamber of Commerce. An address was made by Lieutenant Frank Schobbe, Jr., of this city, who lost his sight in the battle of the Argonne. The movement is endorsed by the American Library Association, American Legion, National Rotary Club, National Chamber of Commerce and other organizations. It is planned to provide books for 75,000 blind persons in the United States.

This Part of your Wash is Already Ironed and Folded

No hard ironing is necessary. No washday labors or bothers.

Saves Much of the Ironing

Think of how much it would mean if, on these sweltering days, you could be saved the work and bother of ironing the sheets, pillow cases, bolster covers, table cloths, napkins, towels and other heavy pieces. These are the pieces that require so much time to iron and such work.

The above chart shows how much ironing Family Laundry Service saves. Family Laundry Service is a low-cost way of eliminating all washday work and much of the labor of ironing.

Your present laundryman has a Family Laundry Service. He will collect your entire family's wash and return it as follows:

All flat pieces, including bed linen, table linen and towels, washed, smoothly ironed, evenly folded and ready for use.

Wearing apparel, all underclothing, dresses, children's garments, etc., carefully washed and dried (and starched where necessary) ready to be dampened and ironed.

Many undergarments may be worn without ironing, due to the method of drying. This will save a great deal of your work in finishing that portion of your wash.

The conditions which make laundries good places to work make them also the place to have your laundering done.
